Mr. Dulles:

a. Noted that [redacted] had suggested a closer arrangement between CIA and the FBI on the development [redacted] [redacted] The Director said we must assume that the Bureau is engaged in this activity and, therefore, we should offer to pool resources in order to save needless expenditure of Government funds. It was agreed that we should approach the FBI on this subject and [redacted] (1) undertook to do so with Sam Papich; (2) advise [redacted] of the results of the discussion.

Reported FI had prepared a paper respecting the encouragement of overt contacts by U.S. personnel abroad with the Soviets and their Satellites, and recommended that this paper be checked out with State before dispatch. The Director approved and stated this proposal should be coordinated with Under Secretary of State Murphy and asked [redacted] to mention this to him at today's OCB Luncheon.
